Design Books For Landscapers

Urban Landscape Design, by Garrett Eckbo. Defines landscape quality, the processes that produce it and those that can be used to improve it. Considers general design processes as they are applied to specific projects—gardens, parts, cities—combining enlightened imagination with down-to-earth practicality. Case studies and abundant illustrations show how a beautiful and functional landscape can be achieved by artistic design and the proper relations of structure, open space and nature. Of interest to everyone responsible for landscape development and maintenance. 248 pages. (1964) $37.50

Landscape Architecture: The Shaping of Man's Natural Environment, by John Ormsbee Simonds. Ideas, criticism and experiences of leading landscape architect and instructor in landscape design and urban and regional planning. Unusual book for thoughtful practitioners. Handsomely bound, 200 photographs, line drawings and sketches. 244 p. (1961) $34.50

Approaches to Home Landscape Design, by Joseph Hudak, landscape architect. American Nurseryman recently published the first 38 chapters in book form. These chapters reveal many ways to solve various design problems around the home. Can be used to sell landscaping ideas to customers. Also valuable to schools for landscape instruction. 64 p. (1974) $4.95

Off the Board/Into the Ground, by Gary O. Robinette. Collection of reference material assembled to help the landscape designer convey his design clearly and accurately to the client and to the planting crew. Material is divided into four major sections: Planting presentation techniques; planting details; specifications; and estimating data. Profusely ills., 384 p. (1968) $14.95

Plants in the Landscape, by Philip L. Carpenter, Theodore D. Walker and Frederick O. Lanphear. An authoritative volume describing landscape plans, landscape construction, landscape maintenance and the historical development of landscaping. Sections on plant selection, landscape design and integrative landscaping. 481 p. (1975) $24.95

Postage: Under $5.00 add 75¢; $5.01 to $20.00 add $1.25; $20.01 to $40.00 add $1.50; $40.01 to $60.00 add $2.00; more than $60.00 add $2.50.
